- b) Contribute to the development, strengthening, or creation of stricto sensus Graduate Programs (PPG) in line with the Institutional Pedagogical Project (PPI) and the Institutional Development Plan (PDI).
- c) Expand the internationalization actions of all stricto sensus PPGs of FURG.

2. VACANCIES

Number of vacancies: 01

Area of knowledge: Oceanography

Graduate Program: Oceanology (PPGO)

Areas of Concentration (AC) and Lines of Research (LP) of the PPGO.

The visiting professor's work profile must fit into at least one of the research lines below:

AC1 - Ocean Physics and Climate:

- LP1 - Dynamics of Oceans and Coastal Zones
- LP2 - Antarctic Science and High Latitude Oceanography
- LP3 - Oceans and Climate Change
- LP4 - Applied Technologies: Instrumentation, Numerical Modeling and Remote Sensing

AC2 - Marine Biogeochemistry, Pollution and Ecosystems:

- LP1 - Seawater Chemistry, Carbonate System and Ocean Acidification
- LP2 - Physical-biological and biogeochemical interactions
- LP3 - Aquatic Contamination and Ecotoxicology

AC3 - Marine and Coastal Geology:

- LP1 - Environmental and Marine Geochemistry
- LP2 - Evolution and Morphodynamics of Coastal Depositional Environments

3. APPLICATION

3.1. The submission of the following documents is required for application:

- a) Application Form filled and signed addressed to the Institute of Oceanography (IO –FURG), Av. Itália, km 8, s/n, 96203-900, Rio Grande – RS, Brazil);
- b) Copy of Doctoral Degree Certificate;
- c) Copy of Identity Document (ID, Brazilians) or Passport (Foreign);
- d) Curriculum Vitae (Lattes CV for Brazilians or any format for foreign);
- e) Working Plan, containing the activities to be developed, including research, student advisory/supervisor, and courses/subjects to be taught at graduate and undergraduate levels.

3.2. To accomplish enrollment, candidates must submit the required documents (subitem 3.1) exclusively through the e-mail address of the coordinator (coordenadorappgo@furg.br) and the Secretariat (ccpofqg@furg.br) of the PPGO.

4. SIMPLIFIED ADMISSION PROCESS:

4.1. The simplified admission process consists of:

- a) Evaluation of formal qualification and professional experience, as an eliminatory and qualifying stage; and
- b) Analysis of the Working Plan, as an eliminatory and qualifying stage.

4.2. During the formal evaluation, the CV will be analyzed according to the Score Board (Appendix 1). The candidate must score on the 3 items of Appendix 1 Table: Teaching Experience (up to 3 points), Scientific Production (up to 5 points), and non-teaching professional experience (up to 2 points). As an elimination criterion, the candidate must comply with all requirements to fit into Class C (assistant), D (associate), or E (full), as described in the specific table of section 7.2.

4.3. The degree required as a minimum for enrollment in the simplified admission process will not be scored.

4.4. When analyzing the working plan, the following will be evaluated:

- a) relevance and inclusion of the working plan in research and graduate activities (which must contain at least 75% of the planned activities);
- b) relevance and contribution to undergraduate teaching and extension activities;
- c) relevance and viability of the working plan;
- d) compatibility with the area of knowledge and one of the research lines of the call;
- e) impacts of the proposal on the qualification of research and internationalization of the Program.

The score assigned for each item above is established in Appendix 2. The candidate must score in all items of Appendix 2 Table.

As an elimination criterion, a minimum score of seven (7) to be achieved in the average of the scores of the two stages is established. As a classification criterion, it is established that scores above seven (in descending order) would indicate the classification order.

4.5. The maximum number of candidates classified in the Simplified Selection Process will be 5 (five).

4.6. The Simplified Selection Process will be conducted by the members of the PPGO Coordination.

5. GENERAL CONDITIONS
